

Kansas City

Jason Spacek

Vice President, Chief Innovation Officer

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Kansas City (Blue KC)

Jason Spacek is the Vice President and Chief Innovation Officer at Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Kansas City (Blue KC). He is responsible for leading company-wide innovation, strategy and customer experience initiatives. In his career at Blue KC, he's driven meaningful programs around segmentation, retail strategy, consumer sales portal, and customer experience strategy.

Jason previously held a number of positions within Blue KC, including Department Vice President of Channel Marketing and Wellness Strategy and Director of Consumerism and Retail Marketing.

Prior to joining Blue KC, he spent 12 years in telecommunications, with roles including Group Manager of Data Product Management at CenturyLink and Marketing Segmentation Manager at EMBARQ.

Jason received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science, Business Administration,
University of Missouri-Columbia

To schedule an interview with Jason Spacek or for more information, contact:

MEDIA CONTACT

Kelly Cannon, Corporate Communications
(816) 395-3711
Kelly.Cannon@BlueKC.com