Tom Nightingale

Vice President and Chief Actuary

Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Kansas City (Blue KC)

Tom Nightingale is the Vice President and Chief Actuary for Blue Cross and Blue Shield of Kansas City (Blue KC). He oversees all actuarial functions, including analyses of the financial consequences of specific risks for the company. He also leads the company's Enterprise Risk Management process.

Prior to joining Blue KC, Tom provided consulting services to health insurers as a Principal and Consulting Actuary at Milliman, an independent actuarial and consulting firm. He specialized in both commercial and government programs and acted as the appointed actuary for various Blue Cross and Blue Shield plans. Tom also served as Vice President and Chief Actuary for Excellus BlueCross BlueShield in Rochester, New York.

Tom earned a Chartered Enterprise Risk Analyst (CERA) designation in 2009 and is the author of a chapter in Group Insurance, Bluhm, et.al, on Enterprise Risk Management for Group Health Insurers.

Tom is a Fellow of Society of Actuaries (FSA) and a Member of the American Academy of Actuaries (MAAA). Tom earned a Bachelor of Arts in Mathematics from Excelsior College.

We will use our role as the area's leading health insurer to provide affordable access to healthcare and to improve the health and wellness of our members.
